

“What Will the Coming of the King Mean For You?”

Revelation 22:6-21

Intro: What does it mean when news of a coming dignitary arrives? Preparations are made, most other tasks are deemed as trivial to prepare for the arrival.

I. You may experience the King in _____ (6-17)

- His _____ will not _____ (6)
- There are blessings for _____ (7-14)
 - Only _____ of God is acceptable
 - Our choice is _____ when He comes
 - The blessings are: _____
- God has _____ everything

II. You may experience the King in _____ (18-19)

- By _____ - regulations, _____
- By _____ away – doctrines, _____

III. You will experience the King _____ (7,10,12,20,21)

- The time to decide grows _____
 - _____ your choice
 - _____ your choice
 - _____ you choice
 - _____ others live it!

Be _____ to meet the coming King, no other priority in life is as _____!

“Principles of Sound Judgment”

Luke 6:39-49

Intro: We often hear people repeat that we should not judge, often meaning that any sin we see in other’s lives should not be dealt with. But there are sound principles of judgment in God’s Word that He wants us to follow.

I. Clear judgment begins with clear _____ (39-42)

- If you cannot _____, you cannot _____
- We cannot see better than our _____
- Our sin _____ our vision (41-42)

II. Clear judgment weighs the _____ (43-45)

- _____ is shown in fruit.
- What shows is what _____
- Our _____ give evidence of the _____

III. Clear judgment is founded on _____ (46-49)

- W cannot be _____ without being _____
- Truth is meant to be _____
- Truth can only help if _____ to our lives.

We should judge _____ first, then focus on _____ others.

Revelation

Intro:

- I. Blessing, Words, fail, obedience, worship, sealed, eternal life, heaven, provided (knowledge, blessings)
- II. Judgment, works, truth
- III. Soon, short, make, live, share, help

Conclusion: Prepared, important.

Luke

Intro:

- I. Sight, see, correct, master, distorts
- II. Heart, character, grows, words, heart
- III. Truth, good, godly, done, applied

Conclusion: ourselves, helping