

“Love, Honor, Respect – For the Glory of God”

Colossians 3:17-24

I. Christians have a code of _____ (17)

- It covers _____ we do
- It defines _____ we do.
 - The _____ - His character in us.
- It defines the _____ of our doing.
 - _____ - to God.

Our code is simple – Everything we do, For _____
_____, with thanksgiving.

II. Families have God-ordained _____ (18-21)

- Wives serving husbands in _____ (18)
- Husbands serving wives in _____ (19)
- Children serving in _____ (20)
- Fathers serving in _____ (21)

We each have a God-given way to _____.

III. We need to _____ God (23-24)

- In our _____
- It is our _____ alone.

Conclusion: Our code of conduct is not a lengthy set of rules, just simply to serve God by serving others.

“The Prayer of a Godly Servant”

I Timothy 2

Intro: We need to be people of prayer, that is a given. But what characteristics should our prayers have?

I. The godly servant prays _____ prayers.

- Supplications – _____
- Prayers - _____
- Intercessions - _____
- Thanksgiving - _____

II. The godly servant prays _____ prayers

- For _____
 - Authorities – For _____
 - Unsaved – To _____ God’s desire.

III. The godly servant _____ God.

- Men with _____, without _____, without _____.
- Women in _____, in _____, in _____

The godly servant recognizes that prayer is _____ in our daily lives, and that prayer should flow out of a life that _____ God.

Colossians

Intro:

- I. Behavior, Everything, what, name, attitude, thankfulness, God's Glory.
- II. Order, respect, love, obedience, encouragement, serve.
- III. Serve, Families, responsibility.

Conclusion:

I Timothy

Intro:

- I. Complete
- II. Thorough, all men, peace, honor
- III. Honors, holy hands, wrath, doubting, appearance, action, authority.

Conclusion: Important, honors